

How It Should Look (but also with arrows going clockwise)

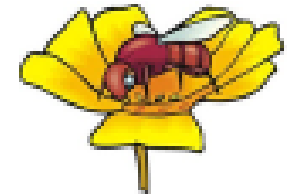

The plant
grows flowers

An insect picks
up pollen

The insect flies
away

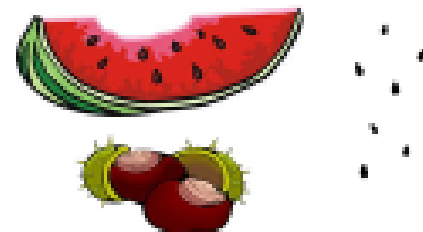

The insect leaves
pollen on a different
flower

The seeds grow into new plants

The seeds are dispersed (moved)
by animals

The plant produces
seeds, sometimes in fruit or nuts