

Hello everyone,

To all you budding poets out there ... if you feel like writing a poem then you could email them to me through the enquiries@nettleham-junior.lincs.sch.uk email – Mr Gibbons will forward them to me.

This is my attempt inspired by my garden this morning.

Happy writing,

Mrs Verdon

What is Spring?

What is spring?

Spring is a dusting of hope on an early March morning,

Wisps of white in a speckled sky,

The song of a bird buoyant in flight,

Blankets of grape hyacinths bursting with miniature jewels,

A cool breeze slicing through gentle rays,

The promise of what's to come.
