

Spelling Practice Sheet

Look	Definition	Word class		Please be sure of the meanings of each of these homophones, but also which homophone fits into which sentence.
stationary	Not moving	Adj		The car stood stationary at the traffic lights.
stationery	Pens, paper, envelopes	Noun		Where did we shop for school stationery before Smiggle existed?
steal	To take something	Verb		To steal something is illegal.
steel	A type of metal	Noun/ verb		Steel is a strong metal that is a mixture of iron and carbon.
wary	To show caution	Adj		Dogs that have been mistreated often stay wary of strangers.
weary	To be tired	Adj/ verb		He gave a long, weary sigh.
desert	An area with low rainfall	Noun		The Sahara Desert is located within the continent of Africa.
dessert	A pudding – needs sugar and syrup	Noun		Dessert is my favourite part of a meal.
fate	Predetermined event – it was their fate	Noun/ verb		Do you believe in fate or do you think we are in control of our own destiny?
fete	A form of entertainment, alternative word to a fayre	Noun		The church fete was to be due to be held in the summer.
draft	A first attempt at something	Noun/Verb		The first draft of my story needed editing so as I could improve my work.
draught	A breeze or gust of wind	Noun		There was a draught coming from the door that made the house feel even colder.
profit	To make money	Verb		I was thrilled with the profit I had made at the jumble sale.
prophet	A messenger from a god.	Noun		A prophet is someone who teaches or spreads the word of God.
guest	Someone who is invited	Noun		You are my guest , please choose whatever you like.
guessed	Past tense of 'to guess'	Verb		I guessed the answer and I was correct!

Why not try... writing a word
scribble

Try writing the words...In your own story!

Can you spell the words...Whilst drawing
with your other hand.

